This informational memo is an update for the bylaw ratification vote. The vote will now be held on Wednesday October 28th. There are two reasons for the change. First there were a lot of officers that joined in the last few days, and a lot more officers that have indicated that they want to join so they can take part in the voting process. Second we needed another week to work out the logistics for the voting procedure. The vote will be by secret ballot, the stewards of the divisions will oversee the vote.

We are asking for volunteers to help oversee the count of the vote. We would like 5 members, hopefully one from each of the major divisions (Jails 1, 2, 3 courts and executive ops) to assist. The officers would have to be at Division III at 1700 hrs to oversee the count of the ballots. This will be a voluntary, no pay position and the officers will be there until the ballots are counted. Anybody interested in participating should give a memo to their Chief Steward or you can fax it to the POAM office at 313-937-9165.
