

Police Supervisor Legal Liability

Legal Liability: This one-day course will provide police supervisors at all levels and rank with an overview of the legal liability they face as supervisors. The course will cover Michigan law and Federal law and legal theories used against police supervisors and their agencies. Concepts such as gross negligence, intentional torts, deliberate indifference, and 42 USC Sec. 1983 will be covered, among many others. In addition to covering the legal framework that is essential to understanding this liability, the course will also offer practical techniques and tips that supervisors can utilize to help minimize their own risk, and the risks against their respective agencies.

Cost: $150.00. Course is MCOLES registered for use of 302 funds.

Prepayment is not required. We will invoice your agency following the course.

Instructor: The course is instructed by the law firm of Keith A Wuotinen, PLC. Keith Wuotinen, Esq. has been employed in law enforcement for over 18 years (current rank of Lieutenant at his agency) as well as being an attorney and admitted to the State Bar of Michigan. The dual careers of law enforcement and attorney makes him uniquely qualified to present a police supervisor legal liability course in a manner that is most beneficial to police supervisors at all levels.
